Indigenous Student Support

We recognise the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, the traditional custodians of the land upon which the Melbourne campus is located.

Our Koori Liaison Officer is here to support all Indigenous and Torres Strait Islanders' learning journey and assist them in taking control of their studies.

Library

Our fully staffed Library provides over 25,000 physical resources including journals and periodicals as well as a suite of databases and online video streaming services.

Also located in the Library, are our Learning Advisors who offer free study and learning advice to all students, providing assistance with writing assignments, time and studying management and online learning and computer skills.

Services include:

- 24/7 access to our online resources
- Over 80 computers and WIFI access
- Individual, group and quiet study facilities
- Skilled librarians to assist with research and information training and requests
- A special collection research room focusing on Australian culinary history and culture.

Essential Wellbeing, Counselling and Disability Support

The following services are available to all students, free and confidential, online and in-person:

- Wellbeing and Counselling Services
- Accommodation information
- Financial support information and referral
- Learning Advisors, offering free study and learning assistance
- Access and Disability support including a dedicated Disability Liaison Officer to work with you to create an individual access plan to accommodate your needs.

THE ANGLISS EXPERIENCE.

GOING GLOBAL.

William Angliss Institute provides you with the opportunity to explore the world through Study Exchange and Work Abroad opportunities. The Institute aims to prepare you with international exposure and skill sets that are highly sought after by employers today.

The Going Global program gives you the opportunity to:

- Immerse yourself in another lifestyle and culture, and improve understanding of other cultures
- Enhance and broaden professional work context and employability skills to gain a competitive advantage
- Develop personal friendships
- Develop independence and personal growth
- Increase career options
- Join and contribute to global communities and conversation
- Gain an international perspective on your study area.

William Angliss Institute qualifications are internationally recognised with many graduates moving on to establish their career outside of Australia. Work opportunities are also available to students while they complete their qualification. The Careers and Employment service is available to assist with working overseas opportunities.

Disney Cultural Exchange Program

Disney International Programs have been visiting the Institute since 2009. Students from all program areas have flocked to the opportunity to participate in 6 or 12 month paid internships in Florida, with Disney selecting many William Angliss Institute students every year.

Study Exchange

Bachelor Degree students are able to study abroad with our partner institutes for six or 12 months, while staying enrolled at William Angliss Institute. William Angliss Institute currently has Study Exchange partnerships with the Free University Bolzano (Italy), CETT - University of Barcelona (Spain), and University College of Birmingham (UK).

Study abroad subjects are delivered in English and recognised by William Angliss Institute as part of your degree studies.

SCHOLARSHIPS

LIVE THE EXPERIENCE.

12

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Study what you love with a little help from the William Angliss Institute Foundation and our industry partners.

Start your career with some support

Through the generous support of the Institute's many friends and industry partners, the William Angliss Institute Foundation awards numerous merit and equity based scholarships each year.

The Foundation was established to provide ongoing assistance to students wanting to achieve their career goals through the Institute

William Angliss Institute encourages all prospective students to apply for eligible scholarships, even before they have received their offer of enrolment.

Scholarships for continuing international students:

- The Sir William Angliss International Merit Scholarship
- The Memorial Fund Scholarship

Scholarships for commencing or continuing domestic students:

- The Sir William Angliss VET Scholarship
- The Sir William Angliss Higher Education Scholarship
- The Sir William Angliss Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Scholarship
- Nestlé Golden Chefs Hat Award Scholarships

“Being awarded the Nestlé Golden Chef’s Hat Scholarship will make a huge difference for me. Especially in light of the recovering industry and the increasing costs of living. I feel much more secure about my future to pursue my culinary career and work towards my goal of opening my own restaurant here in Melbourne”

- Nestlé Golden Chef’s Hat Scholarship Recipient

Alumni Sam May studied a Certificate III in Commercial Cookery through an apprenticeship.

APPRENTICESHIPS & TRAINEESHIPS.

An apprenticeship or traineeship is the perfect way to get trade qualified by mixing practical work with study. We support Australian Apprenticeships and the employers who provide them by offering specialised training for apprentices and trainees in food, business and hospitality.

ANGLISS.EDU.AU/APPRENTICESHIPS-AND-TRAINEESHIPS

Apprenticeships

To start an apprenticeship with us you first need to find an employer prepared to take you on as an apprentice.

The Australian Apprenticeship Support Network Provider (AASN) then registers your training agreement with the Institute and the Victorian Registration and Qualifications Authority (VRQA).

As part of your apprenticeship, your training options include classroom-based training or workplace-based training. You also have blended options incorporating class and work-based training.

Apprenticeships delivered at Angliss:

- Certificate III in Commercial Cookery
- Certificate III in Meat Processing (Retail Butcher)
- Certificate III in Baking
- Certificate III in Cake and Pastry
- Certificate III in Bread Baking
- Certificate III in Hospitality Restaurant Front-of-House*

If you need help finding an apprenticeship contact an Australian Apprenticeship Support Network (AASN) provider on 13 38 73 or visit

AUSTRALIANAPPRENTICESHIPS.GOV.AU

Australian School Based Apprenticeships/ Traineeships

An Australian School Based Apprenticeship (ASBA) or an Australian School Based Traineeship (ASBT) allows you to begin an apprenticeship or traineeship while you are still at school. If you are passionate about a trade then the ASBA program means you don't have to choose between it and your secondary qualifications.

They allow you to become involved in your trade while you satisfy the vocational component of VCE, HSC or VCAL. By embarking on an ASBA you are able to complete certificate-based training that can be credited towards a full apprenticeship.

ASBT and ASCB delivered at Angliss:

- Certificate III in Patisserie
- Certificate III in Commercial Cookery
- Certificate III in Meat Processing (Retail Butcher)
- Certificate III in Baking
- Certificate III in Cake and Pastry
- Certificate III in Bread Baking
- Certificate III Hospitality*

Traineeships

Traineeships are a great way to formalise your work qualifications. Whether you are interested in business, hospitality or patisserie, a traineeship will provide invaluable training that will give you an edge over your competitors.

To start a traineeship with us you first need to find an employer prepared to take you on as a trainee. So you can work and learn at the same time, traineeships are undertaken in your workplace with our trainers who will organise visits in conjunction with your training plan.

Units that cannot be assessed and completed in the workplace will take place on campus.

Traineeships delivered at Angliss:

- Certificate III in Hospitality*
- Certificate III in Patisserie
- Certificate III in Travel*
- Certificate IV in Hospitality*
- Certificate IV in Leadership and Management*
- Certificate IV in Patisserie

WHY STUDY FOODS AT ANGLISS?

The Best Facilities

With 13 commercial training kitchens including dedicated bakery, patisserie and cake decorating rooms, two training restaurants, a new chocolateria and gelateria, Dilmah tea training room, two coffee labs, two training bars and an Indigenous Culinary Garden at your disposal, you'll be exposed to specialist equipment and skills and immersed in culinary culture.

The Best Industry Connections

Top chefs are frequently on campus in kitchens and for special events such as the famous Great Chefs program, as guest lecturers, running masterclasses and looking for staff.

Culinary Competitions and Showcases

Students have opportunities to test their skills with a range of culinary competitions including Fonterra Proud to be a Chef Competition, Nestle Golden Chefs Hat Award and John Patrick Conway Baking Award.

Food Science and Technology students develop new food products which are assessed by industry experts at the bi-annual Student Product Development Showcase.

Exclusive Employment Opportunities

Students have been employed through our exclusive opportunities including recruitment events on campus for Lucas Restaurants, Trader House, Crown Melbourne, Lune Croissanterie and Sand Hill Road, among many others.

Cookery students working alongside Frank Camorra, Great Chefs 2023.

“During the Nagasaki Wagyu Masterclass, students showed their passion in learning how to clean, prepare, cook and present Wagyu beef. It’s important for aspiring chefs to master how to use Wagyu beef from Japan and it was wonderful to see students happy when cooking. A key ingredient of a great chef.”

📄 Eligibility for entry can be demonstrated by ATAR score, previous study, work experience and other factors. Visit www.angliss.edu.au for more details.

The Bachelor of Food Studies (Community Engagement) is a four-year program designed to extend and expand your food system knowledge through a year of working or volunteering in the industry or community sectors. This fourth year allows you to apply your knowledge in a practical context, develop your professional networks and gain real world experience while contributing meaningfully to the sector.

While participating in the Community Engagement program, you will conduct an in-depth research project focused on a food system issue specific to your placement and your passion, all under the supervision of our team of food scholars and practitioners. For example, this might include observing and developing strategies to tackle the challenges of waste management while working in a restaurant, or assisting a food education organisation to develop programs for improving food system literacy in young people.

By the end of the course, you will have made a practical contribution to the food community and enhanced your career and postgraduate study prospects.

A The Angliss Experience:

- Discover new food worlds with excursions to farms, artisan food enterprises and community food projects.
- Study under a team of food scholars and practitioners engaged and practically involved with the issues explored within the degree.
- Develop your networks and gain real-world experience through applied research and hands-on learning.

WHY STUDY EVENTS AT ANGLISS?

Exclusive Employment Opportunities

If there's a major event in Melbourne, you'll find our students there because our award-winning programs attract employers from the biggest industry names. Industry representatives from the most respected events companies regularly visit to share knowledge and to recruit our students.

The Best Industry Connections

Industry placements, real-world events to learn from, and exclusive opportunities put you in front of the best practitioners and employers including Peter Jones Special Events and The Big Group. From pit lane at the Grand Prix to The Birdcage at the Melbourne Cup Carnival and courtside at the Australian Open, you'll find exclusive opportunities to build your resume with William Angliss Institute.

Wide Range of Training Facilities

For practical experience, training facilities and function spaces include two restaurants, a training bar and conference centre.

For the last 15 years, we have taken students for work experience to help them get a start. Three of them were that good I gave them a job and they have all gone on to be outstanding event professionals. As much as it was about their ability, I believe it was also the opportunity they had to study here at William Angliss Institute that gave them the basic skills, knowledge and confidence to apply for and to join a company like ours.

DIPLOMA OF EVENT MANAGEMENT

🕒 1 year FT

🕒 Full-time / Part-time (on request)

📅 Feb, Jul

📄 Pre-Training Review / LLN Test

Develop the skills and essential theory to coordinate event operations with a Diploma of Event Management (SIT50322). This course combines theory with both experiential and real live events.

This highly regarded event management course will empower you to succeed in a dynamic and fast-paced industry. Learn everything from on-site event and venue management to project scheduling, budgeting and supplier management.

Throughout our courses, there are opportunities to explore a variety of specialties and events – everything from international sporting events to festivals and conferences.

This course requires students to work at the Angliss Restaurant and possibly be involved in off-campus events involving the serving of alcohol.

The Victorian Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA) certificate is a compulsory requirement for anybody working in an environment where alcohol is available for purchase within Victoria. All students will undertake RSA training to comply with government requirements.

A The Angliss Experience:

- Develop best practice event management skills taught by industry professionals.
- Organise a real event for a real client as part of your learning.
- Be part of a student group team to coordinate an event from end to end – from theme ideation to run sheets and execution.
- The opportunity to participate in an optional industry placement is offered in the diploma - an application and interview process applies.

“The course has given me a huge boost in confidence. The networking skills to reach out to industry professionals and gain mentors to guide me through this journey have already been so beneficial.”

🕒 3 years FT | 🕒 Full-time / Part-time | 📅 Feb, Jul

📄 Eligibility for entry can be demonstrated by ATAR score, previous study, work experience and other factors. Visit www.angliss.edu.au for more details.

This three-year degree gives you a thorough grounding in all aspects of event management, from designing and selling to planning, implementing and evaluating events for the profit and not-for profit sectors.

It explains and demonstrates the fundamentals of events while challenging you to investigate the underpinning theoretical concepts, enriching your understanding and developing awareness of the cultural and political contexts that affect current and future events.

Strong industry links will afford students a number of networking opportunities with the industry's experts and the chance to take up mentorship positions with its leaders. Learning directly from these experts and specialists, within and outside the classroom, you will experience the application of theory to current practice.

Unique in its delivery, the course offers students the opportunity to select from specialisations that deepen knowledge and skills, develop professional identity and enable students to apply knowledge in real world contexts towards either Business Events or Festival Management. For those seeking a broader qualification to explore their career possibilities, a specialisation does not need to be selected. As graduates, you will operate in this fast-paced industry with expertise in critical and creative thinking to solve complex problems and implement innovative solutions.

A The Angliss Experience:

- Combine academic study with invaluable hands-on experience beyond the classroom with field trips to sports stadiums, live events, event suppliers, and hotel conference and banqueting departments.
- You will also have the opportunity to be involved with the planning and staging of live events.
- You will have the opportunity to develop innovative concepts from conceptualisation through to implementation as part of live events.
- You will also have the opportunity to be directly involved with industry related projects and report reflections back to event stakeholders.
- Explore your passion with a focus on business events, festivals or generalise across both fields.

MASTER OF PHILOSOPHY (MAJOR THESIS) / MASTER OF PHILOSOPHY (PRACTICE AND EXEGESIS)

🕒 2 years FT | 🕒 Full-time / Part-time | 📅 Feb, Jul

📄 Eligibility for entry can be demonstrated by previous study, work experience and other factors. Visit www.angliss.edu.au for more details.

Our Master of Philosophy degrees are aimed at those wishing to develop applied research skills by being supported to design and conduct industry-changing research, and join an academic global conversation about ideas and theories through their own unique research study.

Achieving a Master of Philosophy is a formative experience. It will challenge you, engage you more deeply with the industry, enhance your research skills and knowledge and strengthen your confidence through the development of an academic dissertation and peer recognition of your ideas.

William Angliss Institute is the only TAFE in Australia to offer a research-based Master of Philosophy and the only non-university to offer a Master of Philosophy by Praxis and Exegesis. As a specialist institution focused on and with close and proactive links to the increasingly economically important foods, tourism, hospitality and events industries, we are ideally placed to offer these internationally recognised higher degrees by research with their compelling mix of academic rigour and practical real world experience.

There are two Master of Philosophy options offered by William Angliss Institute.

Master of Philosophy (Major Thesis) requires extensive investigation into a chosen topic supported by a 40-60,000-word thesis. This independent study conducted under the supervision of William Angliss Institute research experts, builds from the fundamentals of research training, including research design, methods and data collection techniques to produce a research thesis that makes a substantial contribution to knowledge and is assessed by leading researchers in the field.

Master of Philosophy (Praxis and Exegesis) involves an emphasis on creative work (Praxis) that is subsequently analysed and explained by a 15-20,000-word thesis (Exegesis). The emphasis on a research-based creative project lends itself particularly well to higher studies in foods, tourism, hospitality and events. Projects may encompass real world applications, for example, developing new approaches to guest services to improve productivity or looking at the economic and community benefits of food festivals.

Two Different Options

There are two Master of Philosophy options offered by William Angliss Institute.

- Master of Philosophy (Major Thesis) requires extensive investigation into a chosen topic supported by a 40-60,000-word thesis.
- Master of Philosophy (Praxis and Exegesis) involves an emphasis on creative work (Praxis) that is subsequently analysed and explained by a 15-20,000-word thesis (Exegesis).
